DETERMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER FOR PUBLIC SECTOR EMPLOYMENT – MATERIALLY AFFECTED FORMER EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES – ELIGIBILITY TO APPLY FOR VACANCIES IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR FOR A SET PERIOD

I hereby determine under section 16(1) of the Public Sector Act 2009 that:

Ongoing employees of the Department of Human Services (DHS), who were formerly employed in that agency in a role providing disability or domiciliary services and, who have taken up employment in a non-Government provider of disability or domiciliary care services in circumstances which at law amounts to a transfer of a business pursuant to the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth), are eligible to apply for public sector vacancies which would otherwise only be available to current public sector employees.

Eligibility will be for a period of two years from the date a former employee commences employment in a non-Government provider. Employees have been provided written confirmation of their transfer date from DHS.

The Office of the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment will maintain a list of eligible employees.

There will be no recognition of prior service for relevant persons who, after taking up employment with a non-Government provider, are re-engaged in employment in the South Australian public sector.
